

COURTESY RESOLUTIONS

We express our profound gratitude to:

1. Terry McCall, our interim Rector who lead us through 16 months of challenging times, our wonderful new rector, Jeff Mello, and all who assisted in leading worship as lay preachers, acolytes, lector, ushers, and Eucharistic and healing ministers.
2. The twelve members of the Vestry, for their service and leadership.
3. All who support the administration of St. Paul's, including Ben Norton, Beverly Estes-Smargiassi, Lydia Snover and Lorraine Baugh, for their extraordinary volunteer service as Clerk, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, and office assistant, to Pat Dunbar as Financial Secretary and for her care in archiving St. Paul's history, and to Lucy Sewall, our new parish secretary, and David Murray, our sextant.
4. The many volunteers of the Brookline Food Pantry, led by Jim Margolis.
5. All of the musicians of St. Paul's who for providing beautiful music and joy to our worship, and especially to Andy Clarkson, for enhancing our spiritual life through wonderful music in his work as our Music Director and Julie Starr, for her continuing and talented leadership of the children's music program.
6. The Building Committee members for their diligent and thoughtful direction on the renovations.
7. Members of the Altar Guild and Flower Committee, for faithfulness and grace during the year.
8. The Hospitality Committee led by Ginny Wilcox, Alan Fried, Margaret Wilkerson and Kendall Gray who turned a lot of water into wine.
9. The amazing Search Committee and the leadership of Georgia Smith and Molly Lanzarotta who devoted much time and thought in the selection of our new rector.
10. The Church School teachers and the leadership of Maria O'Meara and Georgia Smith for their excellent work in inspiring and guiding our young souls.
11. The Ministry Outside the Parish Committee and the Honduras group for their service to the broader committee and the world beyond..
12. All the performers of the Christmas Pageant and to Genae Johnson, Producer, and George Coggeshall and Maria O'Meara, co-Directors.
13. Everyone who worked on the wonderful double Yard Sale, with special thanks to Steve Estes-Smargiassi, Walter Mucha, and Ginny Willcox for their leadership.
14. The Stewardship Committee and the Capital Appeal for securing the funds we need to make things happen.

There are a few individuals who merit special recognition for their stewardship in activities that were unique to the past year.

- Special thanks go to John Mahony who gave countless time and talent in administering the renovations of the Parish House and the Rectory.
- We are grateful for Dick Wallace whose bequest allowed for the new sound and recording system and for Berred Ouellette who guided us on getting it done.
- We are thankful for the incredible generosity of the vestry of Emmanuel Church and Nancy Madden who have worked together in honoring the wishes of the late Eleanor Konnecy.
- Lastly, we give thanks to God who has blessed us with our new talented and inspiring rector.
